

Top Tips For Parents!

1. Make sure your child has a suitable quiet place to practise. You may want to consider purchasing a music stand so they will be able to have their music at the correct height.
2. Encourage your children to talk about their lessons and show that you are listening. This can be a very useful exercise.
3. Make a note of any questions, thoughts or concerns you may have in your child's practice diary.
4. Encourage your child to play to you or a trusted adult as often as you can. Children love to give mini concerts.
5. Take every opportunity you can to get involved in your child's musical development and always praise their efforts, learning a musical instrument can be very challenging.
6. Be patient!! Some skills will take many weeks to develop.
